

Financial Support for Students from Scotland entering the University in September 2020

All information correct at 04/04/2020, please see relevant webpages for the most up-to-date information

Annual Tuition Fees www.saas.gov.uk	For students normally domiciled in Scotland who are studying at a Scottish Higher Education Institution, tuition fees will be paid by the Scottish Government. (Annual online application for fee payment must be made to Student Awards Agency Scotland)
Government support for 2020 www.saas.gov.uk	Young Person's Bursary & Loan 2020/21 Student Loan: £4,750 to £5,750* Student bursary: £0 to £2,000* * Maximum amount for household income of up to £20,999. Minimum amount for household income of £34,000 and above.	Independent Student Bursary & Loan 2020/21 Student Loan: £4,750- £6,750* Student bursary: £1,000 if household income less than £20,999. * Maximum amount for household income of up to £20,999. Minimum amount for household income of £34,000 and above.
University of Glasgow Support for 2020 (apply online) www.glasgow.ac.uk/scholarships	Talent Scholarship: Scholarships of £1,500 for each year of study to talented students who could face financial difficulties whilst taking up their place to study at the university. Travel Bursary: 50% of monthly travel costs, up to a maximum value of £50/month, to help students who may find it difficult to take up their University of Glasgow place for financial reasons.
Additional Support for students facing financial hardship (available to registered University of Glasgow students) www.glasgow.ac.uk/registry/finance/funds	Discretionary Funds – annual grant assistance towards costs of accommodation, childcare, disability, special needs, support for mature students Hardship Fund – short to medium-term one-off support in the form of a grant or loan (for students facing financial hardship who have exhausted all other avenues of support). Crisis grant – emergency grant up to £500 to provide immediate financial support.	